

On May 28, 2004 I received a call from SBC Ameritech to switch my phone service from Talk America to SBC. They promised me a plan that would cost 7.95 per month for the first six months, a 2.00 charge per month for 100 min. of long distance, plus tax. I agreed. I received my first bill today, 10 days after accepting their offer, and it was for 46.98!!! I called them, and was told my savings would show up later. THEY LIED!!! I had the telemarketer go over the offer three times. I know they lied. I hung up and immediately cancelled my service, and switched back to TALK AMERICA. I told them I wasn't going to pay the 46.98 bill. Do I have to? I had them for 10 days. They should use my savings for the 10 day period to pay this outrageous bill. PLEASE HELP!!
